City of Sunnyvale Community Engagement Workshop

Senior Center, 550 Remington Dr.

June 18, 2005, 9:00 a.m. – Noon

Workshop Outcomes:

- Community vision of Sunnyvale as an engaged community;
- Answer to the question: Are we there yet?
- List of preferred action items for building community engagement in Sunnyvale

Agenda

8:30 a.m.	Registration	Continental Breakfast
9:00 a.m.	Welcome	Mayor Dean Chu
	Purpose of the Day	Amy Chan, City Manager
9:10 a.m.	Outcomes and Agenda Review	Derek Okubo, National Civic League
9:15 a.m.	Quick Introduction Exercise	Civil Leugue
9:20 a.m.	"Big Picture" on Community Engagement
9:35 a.m.	 Small Group Discussion: Establishing a Community Vision of Sunnyvale as an Engaged Community What would an engaged community look like? Identify common themes How should we define success?
10:05 a.m.	Review Small Group Findings
10:30 a.m.	Break
10:45 a.m.	 Small Group Discussion: Are We There Yet? Where does the community currently do a good job toward engaging community members? What approaches work? Where could the community do better toward community engagement? What actions could the community employ to help engage its community members more effectively? What are the most important actions?

Attachment A

11:15 a.m. Review Small Group Findings

- Areas of strength

- Areas that need improvement

- Action priorities

- How can the community make these actions happen?

11:40 a.m. Summarize Major Outcomes of the Workshop

11:50 a.m. Identify Next Steps and Opportunities for Involvement by

Workshop Participants Robert Walker, Asst. City

Manager

- Questions/Answers

- Schedule and process for Report to Council

Noon Adjourn Light Refreshments
